Bio (via ORCID)

Steven Vanderputten (*1976) is a full professor in the history of the early and high Middle Ages at Ghent University. His research focuses on the development, societal embedding and culture of religious groups in the high medieval West (c. 800-1200). It covers a wide range of subjects, including memory and the shaping of collective identities, conflict management, rituals and public behavior, oral and written practices of communication, leadership, institutional development, gender, and discourses and realities of ecclesiastical and religious reform. His work has been widely published in peer-reviewed journals and collective volumes, and he has edited several collective volumes. Key monographs include Monastic Reform as Process: Realities and Representations in Medieval Flanders, 900-1100 (Cornell University Press, 2013), Reform, conflict and the shaping of corporate identities. Collected studies on Benedictine monasticism, 1050-1150, (Lit Verlag, 2015) and Imagining Religious leadership in the Middle Ages. Richard of Saint-Vanne and the Politics of Reform (Cornell University Press, 2015). +++ Vanderputten currently holds a Research Professorship of Ghent University's Special Research Fund. His fellowships include Clare Hall (Cambridge University, 2003), the Institute for Advanced Study (Princeton, 2005), the Forschungsstelle für Vergleichende Ordensgeschichte (Eichstätt, 2008), the Netherlands Institute for Advanced Study in the Humanities and Social Sciences (Wassenaar, 2009-2010), the Flemish Academic Center (Brussels, 2011-2012), and the Institute for Advanced Study of Indiana University (Bloomington, 2012). His awards include the Bessel-Award of the Humboldt Foundation (2012) and that of Laureate in Humanities of the Royal Flemish Academy of Arts and Sciences of Belgium (2013).

ADVANCED SEARCH

- Most refine possibilities are available in the filters, but some are not (e.g. VABB approved)
- First filter, then refine in advanced search.
- List of all possible parameters: <https://biblio.ugent.be/doc/api#cql>

EXAMPLE

- Use filters publication type, years and organisation
- Then switch to advanced search and add VABBapproved
- Translation of the filters in advanced search: type exact book AND year any "2008 2009 2010 2011 2012 2013 2014 2015 2016 2017 2018" AND affiliation exact LW
- Add VABB approved: type exact book AND year any "2008 2009 2010 2011 2012 2013 2014 2015 2016 2017 2018" AND affiliation exact LW AND VABBapproved = 1

MORE EXAMPLES

year = 2015 AND (vabbapproved = 1 OR classification = A1)

year = 2015 AND (vabbapproved = 1 OR classification = A1) AND department = LW year = 2015 AND (vabbapproved = 1 OR classification = A1 OR classification = P1)

AND department = EB

Bio (via ORCID)
